By understanding where you currently are, and where you want to go, you will be able to create a simple plan for success.

Learn to love your numbers, and how you can use them for personal growth and salon goals.

KAT RILEY

NATIONAL BUSINESS TRAINER

A 30-year veteran of the salon professional industry, Kat started her career in the corporate world with an extensive background in marketing and business. She combined this experience with her passion for the beauty industry and opened Katherine John Salon in 2000. Kat's love of the salon industry and passion for the people in it ignited her desire to share her expertise in marketing and business while opening a dialogue with her fellow salon owners. This quest to share and network has led her to become a Business Trainer with Eufora International. It is Kat's goal to become an instrumental part of raising the bar of how the salon industry is viewed by the world.
