Eufora NATIONAL TRAINER

Kat Riley

A 28-year veteran of the salon professional industry, Kat started her career in the corporate world with an extensive background in marketing and business. She combined this experience with her passion for the beauty industry and opened Katherine Jon Salon in 2000. Kat's love of the salon industry and passion for the people in it ignited her desire to share her expertise in marketing and business while opening a dialogue with her fellow salon owners. This quest to share and network has led her to become a Business Trainer with Eufora International. It is Kat's goal to become an instrumental part of raising the bar for how the salon industry is viewed by the world.
