Lived-In Blondes
with Michael Figiel
Eufora National Trainer

The most coveted blondes don't announce themselves. They're dimensional, seamless, and impossibly effortless. Discover strategic placement and modern lightening techniques designed to create soft transitions, beautiful dimension, and color that evolves gracefully between appointments. Learn how thoughtful placement enhances movement, complements the haircut, and delivers lived in blondes your clients will love.

Women's Trend Cutting with Lisa Warren
Eufora National Trainer

The most beautiful hair never looks overdone. It's effortless, wearable, and moves naturally because every detail has been thoughtfully designed. Explore today's women's cutting trends through the art of customization as you learn how shape, weight distribution, and texture work together to create modern cuts that feel as beautiful on day thirty as they do on day one. Because the true signature of a great haircut isn't how it's styled. It's how it lives..
